LE MARCHE, ITALY

Magical Le Marche

AN AUTHENTIC ITALIAN
HIDEAWAY

Hotel Leone is an elegant 10 bedroomed boutique hotel in the heart of the Le Marche countryside. Once an ancient palazzo, with its heritage dating back to pre-1500, today this sensitively restored and privately-owned hotel offers that elusive combination of elegant accommodation, personal service and delicious cuisine.

Hotel Leone, a beautiful hilltop retreat in a truly unique setting, offering the best of both worlds: nestled on the edge of the medieval town, a tranquil setting with some of the most commanding views in all of Le Marche AND just 2 minutes walk to the centre of the picture-postcard historic town of Montelparo, an enchanting, medieval town with beautiful piazzas, winding streets and panoramic views to the Adriatic Coast on one side and the majestic Sibillini Mountains on the other.

The landscapes of Le Marche, Central Italy, have inspired artists for centuries, provides the most breathtaking backdrop for any event or retreat and is ideal for groups from eight up to 26 people.

MULTI-PURPOSE STUDIO

MONTELPARO & BEYOND

You can simply lose yourself in the beauty of the locality of Montelparo. For those keen to know more about Montelparo's history, the town has a number of significant buildings dating as far back as the 13th century.

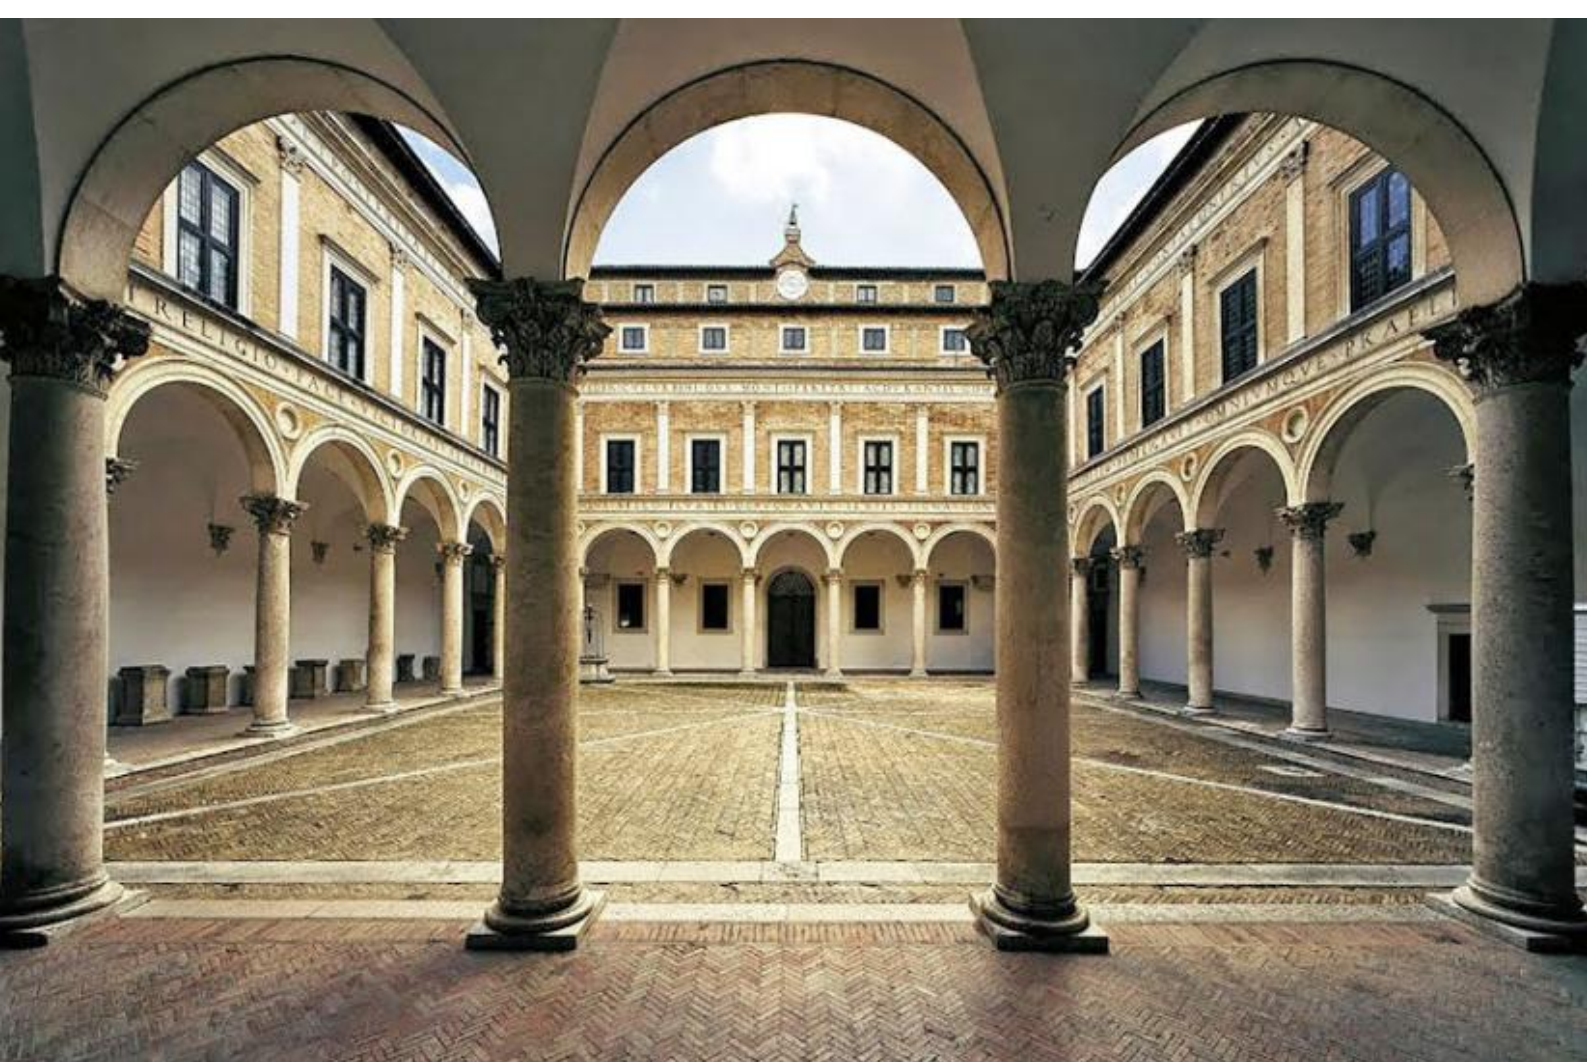

There are also many local walking routes around the town and Hotel Leone can arrange an English-speaking guide to accompany guests on walks around this historic area. Guided hikes in the countryside around the town can also be arranged.

Nature and Adventure

This region has something for everyone: mountains, hills, parks, lakes and beaches. Le Marche's natural heritage is impressive, almost 90,000 hectares of land are covered by two national parks, four regional parks and six natural reserves. Hike over the Sibillini mountains or explore the region on horseback. Try out all manner of waters-sports from stand-up paddle boarding, kayaking, windsurfing and canoeing to diving.

Hiking and Biking

The Sibillini Mountains are one of the most beautiful zones of the Apennines and include 10 mountains reaching over 2,000m in height. The National Park has numerous nature trails suitable for all levels of fitness. Hike along riverbanks, pass stunning waterfalls and caves and enjoy some of the best views Le Marche offers. There are many routes for cycling and mountain biking. The National Park also offers other activities such as horse riding, climbing, quad biking and skiing.

AUTHENTIC ITALY

Experience genuine day-to-day life in Le Marche by visiting some of the region's hidden towns and villages. The architecture is mostly unchanged since medieval times, as are, many of the region's traditions and local customs.

- Ascoli Piceno, an ancient town known for its beautiful Piazza del Popolo, which is considered one of the most beautiful piazzas in Italy
 - Macerata, the seat of one of the Italy's oldest universities, and popular for its great opera tradition
 - Sarnano, which is listed as one of the most beautiful villages in Italy
- Le Marche is also known for shoemaking and produces around 90% of all Italian leather goods. Look out for traditional shoe-maker for a tailor-made treat
 - Check out: Fermo, Matelica, Cingoli, San Ginesio, Camerino and Offida

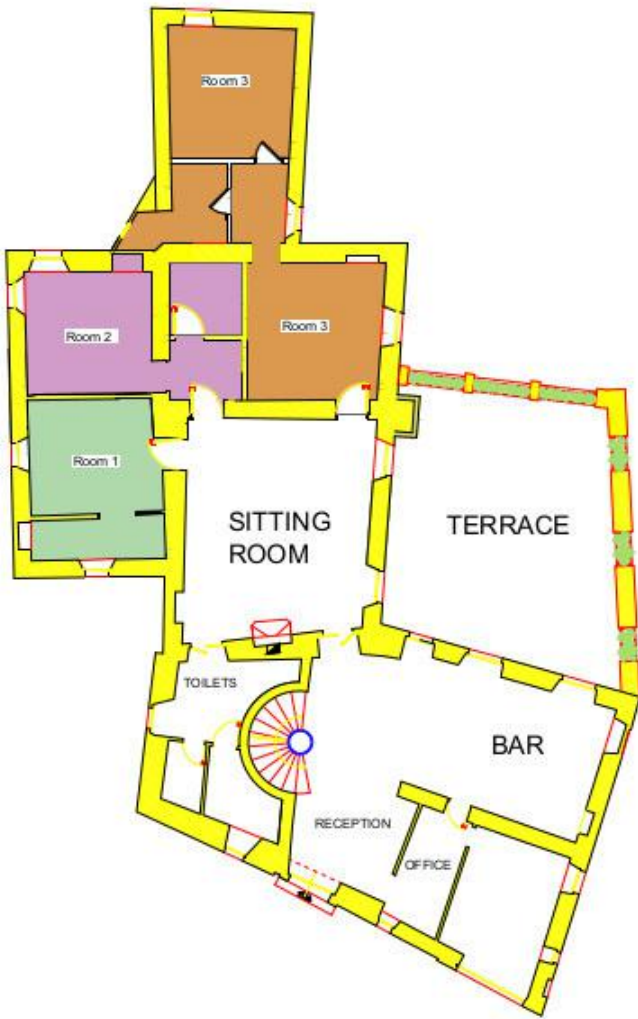

Beaches

The Le Marche coastline covers 180 km and offers one of the highest number of Blue Flag beaches in Italy. Check out Riviera del Conero and its azure seas where some of its beaches are only accessible by boat. Or Riviera del Palme, which covers the area from Pedaso through to Cupra Marittima, Grottamare and San Benedetto del Tronto.
